

COMMUNITY FOUNDATION OF WASHINGTON COUNTY Privacy Policy

PRIVACY STATEMENT

This website is owned and operated by the Community Foundation of Washington County. Our intention is to inform and educate our visitors about our work as a grantmaker, community resource and philanthropic partner to individuals, families and corporations. The Community Foundation of Washington County is committed to honoring the privacy of all those we work with, including visitors to our website and subscribers to our electronic newsletter.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Your right to privacy is very important to us. We recognize that providing the Community Foundation of Washington County with your personal information is an act of trust. When you visit the Community Foundation of Washington County online, you remain anonymous, as we do not require registration to view our website or access information.

We may occasionally ask for your feedback via surveys or other communications to better understand your interests and needs. The Foundation does not share or make public any personal information gathered through our website.

PUBLIC INFORMATION

Under the federal Internal Revenue Code, the following documents are public information:

- IRS Form 990 and related schedules for the past three years.
- Exemption letter from the IRS.
- Approved application for exemption with supporting documentation.

The Foundation's list of donors (other than those published in the annual report, with permission) are not available to the public. We do not reveal the name of donors who wish to remain anonymous to the recipient of a grant.

THIRD PARTY SITES

Our website(s) provide links to third party sites. Since we do not control those websites, we encourage you to review their privacy policies.

COMMUNICATIONS

If at any time, you wish to stop receiving the Community Foundation of Washington County's electronic newsletters or other communications, or to be removed from our e-mail list, you may unsubscribe as explained in each message. The Community Foundation of Washington County will not give your e-mail addresses to other organizations. We may occasionally send you mailings regarding events, products or services by reputable third parties that we think you might be of interest to you. In no event do we provide your information to third parties.
